

April 11, 1973

I am frank to say that my lifetime and my retail business is limited. I cannot compete and this is one of the reasons. As fast as I can, I want to phase myself out of a business in which it is small. My lifeline is pretty well determined and I have to adjust to what conditions are and not the way I want them. And for this Legislation not to understand that you cannot employ anybody anymore, you can't even employ a 14 year old girl to even go home and be a baby sitter for much less than $1.00 and $1.25 an hour, and all she does is sit around, and that is all she is there for. When I

(End of Belt #12)