endeavor to convince the Rules Committee and the Congressional delegation. This group was put together on a Wednesday evening. The following Tuesday noon, four members of this Legislature were on their way to Washington so this is extremely fast--hurried group put together. They do not represent any other existing groups. They are considered as a no-name group and they call themselves the no-name group. I think what they experienced--that the four members of this body had upon that committee and we had meetings at 8 or 8:30 in the morning, last about an hour and then again at 5:00 in the evening and I think the experience of us four legislators helped devise a plan of action--how to cope with the problems, because these are mainly cattle feeders, some bankers were present, who did not have the political know how of what to expect, what to encounter and what to do at the right time so I think it was very beneficial that this Legislature acknowledged the fact that someone from this group should go there. I for one at least, would like to think that we were of some benefit and that we accomplished something even though it is not the desired results that we wanted, we did accomplish something in our trip to Washington. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator Burbach. The Chair would like to appoint a committee of 3 to retire to the Governor's office and escort him over to the Chamber this morning and the Chair would like to appoint Senator Fowler, Senator Mahoney and Senator Anderson. Will those three Senators please retire to the Governor's office and escort him to the Chamber? The Legislature will be at ease until he arrives. Do we have any other business on the desk to cover here? Senator Burbach, would you turn off your little light for me please? Thank you. It's on.
