On the other hand, I don't think that the opinion of the majority should be thrown out the window at the sake of expediency, particularly if I am to make a point that I personally favor. Now I haven't enjoyed all these years of prevail that are mentioned here in this respect, but if an issue can not be resolved by the people involved, then I don't think it is the function and purpose of this body to set about to resolve it. I support Senator Lewis's motion to bracket this bill until January. In January, if there is no equitable solution forth coming, from the majority in this case, then I most certainly will vote with those who would act today.

SPEAKER: Senator Schmidt.

SENATOR SCHMIDT: Mr. President, and members of the legislature, as I said before, I rise to oppose the motion to delay action on the bill. I do so reluctantly because I know that Senator Lewis, is sincere when he makes
