what we have heard the year in and year out.

PRESIDENT: Well, Senator Carpenter was next, then Senator Marsh. Senator Marsh, why don't you go ahead, Senator Carpenter has yielded his position there.

SENATOR MARSH: I have not been contacted by any Omaha bank, but my Lincoln contacts and this includes both larger and smaller banks, are either satisfied, or are at least willing to live with this bill with the compromise which gives the 3 mile limit. Or within the city, the 3 miles or within the city limit, for the second detached facility. I would like to vote on this issue without further delay.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter, did you wish to be heard on this motion again? All right, Senator Schmit, back to you. Is there any further discussion of Senator Schmits motion? Senator Carpenter, any further discussion of Senator Schmits motion?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well I have to inquiry, I thought, I understood, that if we adopted the Schmits motion. We'll be back to the original bill. Now is Senator Schmit going to withdraw his motion to take off the Goodrich motion, which is amended by myself?

PRESIDENT: No, Senator Schmits motion was just to, to his was to strike the Goodrich amendments this morning, but he wants to withdraw that motion to strike the Goodrich amendment.

SENATOR CARPENTER: If he does that, and accepts it, then we back to the bill as it originally was?

PRESIDENT: Yes, with the E & R amendments, which we just adopted with the bill, on select file. Correct.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Only is the word a partial explanation. It was my understanding that at that particular time, we go back to the original bill. Which I--

PRESIDENT: That is not the chairs understanding, no.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well, I'm talking about the original negotiation, what ever you want to call it, but if he withdraws, then we're going back to the bill as it was amended. So I withdraw my objection.

PRESIDENT: All right, the objection is withdrawn. Are there any objections to Senator Schmit withdrawing his motion. Hearing none, so ordered and the objection is withdrawn. Motion is withdrawn. All right now, there are no other amendments to LB 312? Senator Goodrich, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR GOODRICH: To attempt to make sure that the chair hasn't confused the issue.

PRESIDENT: Thank-you.

SENATOR GOODRICH: We, as I understand it, I want Vince to check me out on this, when we,

PRESIDENT: The chair hasn't done anything with your
