up by the staff on some correct--to correct some internal references and the third amendment specifies on what type of property a security interest may be filed with the County Clerk. As originally drafted, the security interest was to cover all property for a failure to pay fines and judgments and we changed that to the word "personal" because this could have caused some problems because the real estate deeds which are filed with the Register of Deeds. It's corrective language by Stu Wheeler. He asked that this be adopted, these amendments, and you might, it would be alright to take them all at the same time if it's alright with the body.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion of the amendments? Question is, shall the amendments be adopted? Vince--. Question is, shall the amendments be adopted? All those-- excuse me, Senator Skarda, did you wish to speak on the amendment?

SENATOR SKARDA: As soon as I get my pencil in my pocket.

PRESIDENT: Shoot.

SENATOR SKARDA: You know, Mr. President and Members of the body, I'm just wondering if we're doing what's right with LB 45 and I'm not talking disrespectful about it but what concerns me and we adopt a uniform commercial code in the last session, everybody seemed to know everything about it but when we come back this session, we're making all kinds of corrections. I'm wondering what would be wrong with holding this to let everybody look at it till the next session. I'm not speaking in opposition to it, not by a darnsight but it's a concern to me to that extent and it's a concern
