SENATOR RICHENDIPER: It seems as if we're taking two roads here. Now before April, you were the great ram rodder of the Governors budget through this legislature. Now it is in doubt the projections that were, were put in the budget. Now how can this be? How can you be in such doubt now, when 452 is on an over ride and you were in complete agreement with his budget before, before the recess before the holiday?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Now, Mr. President before I answer do I have enough time to do it? I'm willing to ask the question.

PRESIDENT: That is right. 10 minutes.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Ok, well as I said before, I was the ram rod for the Governor and I told this body that I was appointed by him and not by myself as I generally am. We set down there and we did all the conniving two minds can do in order to put his appropriation bill where it was finally passed and that is the way it was. As I've said
