PRESIDENT: The previous question has been called for. Does the chair see five hands? The question is shall the debate now close. All those in favor will vote aye. All those opposed will vote no. Motion is to cease debate. Previous question has been called. The question is shall the debate now cease. All right. Thank you. The clerk will record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, To Close debate.

PRESIDENT: Debate will now close and Senator Stull is closing on his amendment.

CLERK: Wait a minute. No, it's Senator Simpson's amendment, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Excuse me. Sorry. That's right. Senator Simpson's first, then Senator Stull.

SENATOR SIMPSON: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, very shortly, the issue before us is reading "A" bills. I have amended that we should read them on the last day of session. We would not spend a lot more time doing a rhetoric on the floor now. We could then decide the question and they can go to the Governor and the Governor can decide if we have spent this money wisely and then we won't have to worry about coming back
