

SENATOR GOODRICH: Would the clerk read the amendment so we know what we're at least considering.

PRESIDENT: It has already been read Senator, but that is fine. The clerk will read the amendment.

CLERK: (Read)

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion of the amendments. Excuse me, just a minute, Senator Goodrich, I didn't mean to be disrespectful, it had been read and I thought you were somewhat implying that it had not been read and I'm sorry I didn't really mean to make it sound that way. Senator Simpson.

SENATOR SIMPSON: Mr. President, members of the legislature, I'm not sure exactly what we are doing in this, in this motion.

PRESIDENT: I'm sorry, I didn't catch it either. Senator Carpenter has withdrawn the motion. Ok.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I asked unanimous consent to withdraw it. If any other person particularly in the Omaha delegation wants to offer it, I'll be glad to second the motion. I've got all I can handle to handle my own business.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections to withdrawing the amendment. Any objections? Hearing none, so ordered. Next amendment please.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment is from Senator Carpenter, add the following new sections (Read) signed Senator Carpenter. Now Mr.
