

May 16, 1957

the way of cost. You include the cost of people driving greater distances to the offices to get services performed. In my judgment, there's not going to be any savings in cost. So I just want to alert the body to what's going on with reference to soil conservation in the state of Nebraska.

(End of Belt #3)