PRESIDENT: Senator Skarda, then Stahmer, Waldron, Duis, Kelly.

SENATOR SKARDA: Mr. President and members of the body, it seems awfully odd to me. Everybody for the years that I've been associated in the body has great admiration for the Highway Patrol but nobody seems to want to do anything about it. They put them in a category with the laborer or a guy that drives a truck. These are distinct trained people, professional people that I have great
