

SENATOR DICKINSON: Mr. Speaker I'm certainly not an official on the rules, but only from memory of this very session in the record of what has happened here it would surely state that we have done this identical thing on other occasions and it does as Senator Proud is saying we have voted to reconsider and now we must reconsider. Maybe we should have three quarters of an hour to lobby such as been going on around here during the interim this time.

PRESIDENT: Yeah, I've made the ruling and the ruling is that the bill has gone back to E & R for engrossing and now if someone wants to challenge that ruling, fine. Then challenge the chair on the ruling. You will not insult me. That is fine and dandy. I have ruled that that is what has happened. That is the reconsideration and that is the vote that was taken was to reconsider the motion.

_____ : I challenge the ruling Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Alright fine, the question is then shall the Chair be sustained. All those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote no. The chair has been challenged and the question is shall the Chair be sustained. All those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote no. Question is shall the chair be sustained? All those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote no. Senator Cavanaugh for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Shouldn't the question be whether you should be over ruled?

PRESIDENT: No, the question is shall the Chair be sustained. Have you all voted? Clerk will record. Senator Carstens for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARSTENS: I don't want to pull any cheap tricks here, I have mistakenly pressed Senator Kime's button green.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 15 nays and 9 not voting.

PRESIDENT: Alright, now the Chair has been sustained, do you want to reconsider that. Are there other motions on the desk?

CLERK: Well none further on that point Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Well Senator Barnett, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR BARNETT: Point a personal privilege Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: State your point.

SENATOR BARNETT: It is nice to see that somebody else can beat on an over ruling of the chair besides me.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. I suppose I should thank those that do sustain the Chair. Senator Carsten.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Appoint a personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: State your point Senator.

SENATOR CARSTEN: I resent the remarks that the Chair made I think that those of us that objected and were in opposition to the ruling of the Chair should not be discriminated against. We did it in all sincerity and I object to those remarks of us that voted on the other side sir.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carsten, the Chair apologizes if I in any way offended, and I sincerely mean that. The remark was not
