PRESIDENT: Any further discussion now of the Carpenter amendment? Senator Dickinson, did you want to be heard on the issue? The Carpenter amendment. Senator Proud? Carpenter amendment.

SENATOR PROUD: Well naturally Mr. President, I have a conflict of interest so I'm going to make my remarks brief. I don't know that it's any bigger conflict than anybody else's around here on the various bills and as Speaker, I have the prerogative subject to being overruled by the body, of referring a bill back to public hearing when an amendment changes it radically enough and, of course, this is a radical change. If this had been in the bill to start with, there would have been many, many people testify at the public hearing and naturally, I would object to
