SENATOR WHITNEY: Mr. President, I want to ask unanimous consent to be excused at 2:00 this afternoon. I will return at 5:00 this evening.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered. Senator Czac.

SENATOR CZAC: I was going to say, let's get on with final reading.

PRESIDENT: Senator More, did you wish to be recognized.

SENATOR MORE: Point of personal privilege Mr. President, concerning Senator Carpenter. Just from my stand point, I, one of the things I have always admired him for that he is always told the truth. I think that is quite a bit and I think another thing, if you take the number of amendments, the number of bills that he has, his betting average isn't too high. So he is not betting by with, with what folks think he is betting by with. I think he is doing a good service to our body and I believe to look at the record, that his betting average probably would be quite low compared to some, in many of his amendments and his bills, but he has a lot of them.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, I think I have a motion on the desk, to unbracket LP 10.

PRESIDENT: Stand by.

SENATOR WARNER: I ask unanimous consent.

PRESIDENT: Senator Fred Carstens, did you wish to be recognized? Senator Fred Carstens, for what purpose do you rise Senator?

SENATOR CARSTENS: Well, I was going to rise for the purpose of making a motion, to go on to final reading today and then tomorrow's bills.

PRESIDENT: Well, stand by. We're trying to get on about things here and we have them in order and we're trying to get some things read into the record here. Do we have any-

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a communication from the executive office under the date of May 22, addressed to Mr. President (Read)
