reading--

PRESIDENT: Because there was a specific motion made on those this morning and there has not been a motion made on the other bills.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Yes but, did I, I didn't understand in the motion that they be read first on final reading. I would assume that they would have gone to the bottom of the list of those that are already there scheduled for final reading today. It's not that I'm objecting to the bill or anything of that, but I'm just questioning the procedure, sir.

PRESIDENT: Good question, Senator Carsten. It's the Chair's understanding that those are the only two bills that are eligible for final reading at this particular time. Once again, as soon as we can get the Senators in their seats for final reading, we'll take up LB 235. Just as soon as we can get all of the Senators in their seats, we will begin with final reading. Thank you. The Assistant Clerk will read LB 235. Attention please, final reading of LB 235.

CLERK: Reads bill.

LB 235

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with the question is, shall the bill pass? All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed vote no. Voting on the final passage of LB 235. Once again the Chair would ask, have you all voted? Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Inaudible.

PRESIDENT: Pardon me?

SENATOR SCHMIT: I'd like to ask for a call of the house, and--

PRESIDENT: Alright, Senator Schmit asking for a call of the house. Clerk will clear the board. At the next bell please indicate your support of a call of the house. All those in favor of a call of the house vote aye. All those opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 9 nays for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT: We're under call of the house. Sergeant at Arms please come forward. We're under call of the house. At the next bell please indicate your presence so we can determine who's present. Asking you to indicate your presence please. We're under call of the house. Motion under vote is the final passage of LB 235 and we are under a call of the house. Senator Carpenter, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Roll call vote.
