

January 4, 1974

somewhat wasterful society. The conservation measures that we have talked about are good, and working. I want to point out that when you have increased the importation of fuel into the state of Nebraska and at the same individual service stations are short of fuel. We see what has happened. Spot shortages have been created thoroughout the state of Nebraska and throuhnut the nation.

(end belt #11)