

SPEAKER PROUD: Mr. President, this is debatable if anybody wants to talk on it, but the reason I put it up there it is serious but some of you may have other ideas. I personally don't care whether we convene at 9:00 or 1:00 or not at all but I don't believe that we have enough work for a full day. We have gone through general file and we will have a few revisors bills up Monday I believe, I believe that there are a few bills bracketed for Monday and possibly we would have Final Reading Monday but that is it, so that is why I suggest that we adjourn until 1:00 rather than 9:00. Whatever the body decides, I'll leave my motion in.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richendifer.

SENATOR RICHENDIFER: Mr. President, and members, I believe that there are some committee hearings or executive sessions at least set for Monday afternoon. Senator Luedtke isn't here but I think that we have quite an important one and this would probably interfere with it.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President, the appropriations committee has hearings set for 1:30 Monday afternoon. We would rather do our legislative floor business Monday morning.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Cal Carsten.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President, members of the legislature, I would amend that motion to read 10:00 instead of 1:00.

PRESIDENT: Motion now to amend the adjournment notice to 10:00, is there need for debate of that particular motion? Amending the adjournment time to 10:00 a.m. Monday. Speaker Proud.

SPEAKER: That is quite alright with me. I didn't realize that there were executive.....I don't believe that there are any public hearings but I didn't realize that there were those executive hearings. So I have no objections.

PRESIDENT: Motion is to amend the adjournment time until 10:00 a.m. Monday. Senator Richendifer.

SENATOR RICHENDIFER: Is there enough business to take care of Monday by convening at all?

PRESIDENT: The chair is not in a position to answer that. It depends upon who is ready for what bills. WE have three bills scheduled for debate Monday, but outside of that the Chair doesn't see anything other than routine business. Back to you Speaker Proud.

SPEAKER PROUD: Mr. President, that is debatable. I don't know but we do have Final Reading scheduled I believe, if Monday is the 7th. There will be some Revisor Bills so I would say that the probabilities are that we have enough business for a couple of hours anyway. So the rest of the day whatever we decide. But with the executive committee hearings I don't know how many Senators we are going to have here.

PRESIDENT: Motion is to amend the adjournment time to 10:00 Monday. All those in favor. Question is shall we
