

January 24, 1974

will vote aye, those opposed will vote no. Have you all voted? Question is shall the debate now close. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The debate will now close and Senator Kremer may close on his motion to introduce the bill. Senator Kremer is closing. This will close debate.

SENATOR KREMER: I will only say what has already been said that all we are asking for is the introduction of the bill. I'm sure that it does need refinement and I believe that we will gain some valuable information when the bill is heard, I look for a full house the day the bill is heard, and I'm sure that those that are interested will turn out and give us their council and then after the committee has heard the bill, and they see fit to advance it to the floor, this body itself will have the opportunity to amend it any way they want and the President will...and that is all the remarks I have Mr. Chairman.

(end belt #6)

(start belt #7)

PRESIDENT: Alright, we are going to vote on the bill, Senator Nore for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR NORE: To ask a question of Senator Kremer.

PRESIDENT: You are not permitted to ask questions because the debate has been closed

SENATOR NORE: I think that it is fair that I make a rebuttal to this terrible statement that he made about me. I don't think that he was a Christian to do that.

PRESIDENT: Senator Nore, the Chair has over ruled you, you are out of order you will sit down and you can rise on a point of personal privilege and say it afterwards, but right now the question before the house is shall the bill be introduced. All those in favor will vote aye, those opposed will vote no. Question is shall the bill be introduced. All those in favor will vote aye, those opposed will vote no. Senator Nore, please take your seat. Have you all indicated your preference? Clerk will record.

CLERK: 36 ayes Mr. President on the motion to introduce.

PRESIDENT: Alright the bill is introduced. Senator Carpenter for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARPENTER: I would like to get the attention of the body on a point of order that I think that might be reasonably important.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter would like your attention for a moment.