PRESIDENT: Now, we are speaking on the Goodrich Amendment, let me ask the cooperation of the body. Let's try that. The Chair has a problem, as you know, I try to keep track of who wants to speak on what. But when you turn your light on and then you move to another amendment or another subject matter and you don't turn your light off, I don't know what you want to speak on, so you'll have to help me and cooperate there. Now, then, we have to know how many of the people who have lights on want to speak on that amendment. Senator Clark, I'll recognize you first, then Senator Stahmer.

SENATOR CLARK: Mr. President, members of the body. I'm certainly against this amendment. Now, I think this is a completely different subject and it ought to come in in a separate bill. You're going to kill this bill by having this type of thing on the bill itself. It's a different subject. You're asking money from the Legislature and I'm only asking you to take the regulation out. I would certainly urge you to take this amendment off and stop fooling around with the bill.

PRESIDENT: Now, Senator Stahmer. Speaking only on the Goodrich Amendment.

SENATOR STAHMER: Mr. President, I had a similar amendment that would follow so we're talking on the same amendment. I would favor if we're going to make.. but this provision on to fund it with state funds. But I'd like to point out that perhaps it is a matter of personal privilege or otherwise. I did introduce one bill for the city that they asked me to withdraw. That wasted one of my ten and I said at the time that I was having another bill withdrawn... or drawn up to help the handicapped, namely for transportation. I think we could work the elderly and handicapped in this. I think we need to get together and devise a master plan, but if we are going to shoot this bill across, I support the Goodrich Amendment. I think we ought to fund it.

PRESIDENT: Now, Senator Nore, speaking only on the Goodrich Amendment.

SENATOR NORE: Mr. President, I rise in opposition to any amendments to this bill. I think Senator Clark has a good bill and let's get off high center. We're spinning our wheels, let's turn down all amendments and pass the bill on.

PRESIDENT: Now, Senator Proud, then Senator Cavanaugh. We're speaking only on the Goodrich Amendment.

SENATOR PROUD: Now, Mr. President, I'm really going to try to clear this up. We are obviously bogged down. Now let's consider what we're doing here. Who's idea was this bill that's under debate? It was Senator Clark's idea. It wasn't mine, it wasn't Senator Carpenter's, nor was it Senator Mahoney's or Senator Goodrich or any other Senator. It was Senator Clark's. And apparently he's got a good bill. Now let's let him have his bill. Now, everybody who is roaring around here about helping the elderly, they can introduce their own cotton-pickin' bill. Let's let Senator Clark have his bill. And if they feel so strongly about this, why didn't they come up with a bill for 10¢ to start with. Let's pay Senator Clark that courtesy. His bill is getting bogged down with a bunch of amendments. Let's pass his bill. And if Senator Carpenter or any other Senator wants to introduce a bill in this body this morning for 10¢ fare for the elderly, I'll vote for it's introduction. Is that being against old people? Let's forget these amendments and I ask, as a matter of courtesy, to Senator Clark for the introducers
