those be printed in the Journal but when one is critical and deals with a substantial issue as this one does, I think that it ought to be printed so that all of the members see it and take cognizance of the issues discussed, so I ask unanimous consent to have this letter printed in the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections to having this letter printed? Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered. Senator Waldron has asked unanimous consent to be excused Tuesday, are there objections to his absence? Hearing none, so ordered. Any other business to come before the body: Then the motion is to adjourn until 9:00 tomorrow morning. All those in favor of that motion say aye, those opposed say no. Ayes have it so ordered. We are adjourned until 9:00 tomorrow.
