here and get down to business and move on our way, go back home, take care of our obligations and responsibilities there.

PRESIDENT: Senator Snyder. The motion is to adjourn to one week from Monday. That's the amendment, excuse me.

SENATOR SNYDER: Mr. President and members of the Legislature. I didn't know how many buttons were going to be pushed when I pushed mine. I'll just take a moment to say I support the proposal before us and I would hope we would limit our debate to that. I personally, not only as committee chairman, but as an individual senator, have a lot of work to do to get caught up. When you travel down here an hour and a half each way, you're very limited in your time. You work over the noon hour but I think we should be honest with ourselves and say that we do have a very large amount of work before us. I feel a little guilty sometimes, maybe, thinking that I haven't had the time that I'd have liked to had to put into these various issues. I think we have some large issues that I for one would like to have a little bit of time to ask questions of other departments and to go over these things. I think the committee hearings will be through now. We'll have a week to really let ourselves make sure we're acclimated to what we've got here. Then go through the stretch drive home and I think we will have had a good session. So, I support the proposal before us wholeheartedly.

PRESIDENT: Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: Mr. President, I support taking a week off or 10 days. It's always been my contention at the end of the introductory period of bills which is 20 days, that the Legislature should take off and have hearings both in the morning and in the afternoon. Get it caught up so we know what we're doing. When I was talking about introducing this constitutional amendment, I simply heard from the people that they wanted us out of here and they wanted us back in the 130 or 140 day session in the year we're up. Probably the best thing we could do is go home, understand what these bills are, get the amendments on them, get the thing straightened out, and know what we're doing. We're in a mess right now. You can look at the board and see. The committees are in a mess.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President and members of the Legislature. I would just like to say one or two things. Yesterday you talked on this for an hour on this floor. You lost a lot of important time. This morning you're starting already, 15 minutes have gone by. You've all got important bills up there that you'd like to have passed. I say let's go work and therefore, I call for the question.

PRESIDENT: Question has been called for. All those...the Chair sees five hands. Question is shall the debate now close, all those in favor of closing the debate, will vote aye. All those opposed, vote no. Thank you, Clerk will record.

CLERK: 31 ayes, Mr. President, to cease debate.

PRESIDENT: Okay. The debate will now cease. Actually we have Senator Carpenter's amendment to Senator Proud's motion that we adjourn. So, let's let Senator Carpenter close then on his amendment which would be to adjourn until a week from Monday. Senator Carpenter, does the Chair understand it, that would be until March 4th, do you mean that? Or did you mean a week from yesterday? A week from this coming Monday, then? Okay. Senator
