

March 4, 1974

material to minors but it also includes adults. It includes as many forms as pornographic...of pornographic material as we can possibly include in the bill and stay in compliance with the Supreme Court rulings. And the bill in its present form is a result of a conference between all opposing sides of the bill which in effect had eleven attorneys all around one table and they came out with the committee amendment form of this bill. And I would adopt...I would move rather the adoption of the committee amendments to this bill. And then I will explain just exactly what they are or I could do it right now if you like.

PRESIDENT: Now, is it the Chair's understanding that Senator DeCamp has an amendment to the committee amendments?

SENATOR GOODRICH: Yes, we have to adopt the committee amendment and then his amendments apply to the committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: Okay. What do we have....Senator Goodrich, go ahead and explain the amendments.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Okay, the...as I mentioned, the committee amendments are the bill now and the first three and a half pages deal with definitions. The....that's all section one, section two deals with the distribution of pornographic materials to minors. Section three is the exhibiting to minors. Section four is defenses in case someone is brought to trial on the charge of allowing minors possession of this material. For example, this bill is not a typical prosecutors bill. Neither is it a defendants bill. It's about as middle of the road as you can get. To give you an idea, for example, in the defenses, the minor accompanied by his parents or guardian and such person had reasonable cause to believe that the person accompanying the minor was a parent or guardian, this would be a defense....a charge of allowing a minor in. For example, if the parent consents to it, then it's okay. If you go on to Section 5, this deals with false representation. For example, if a minor falsely represents his age by the showing of official appearing documents such as drivers license, draft card, etc. and gains entrance to a pornographic movie or a....or purchases pornographic materials, that too...

(End of Belt #5A)