

March 6, 1974

General for the last several times.

SENATOR MURPHY: Senator Walbron, you're bringing back a bill if I'm not mistaken puts it in the Department of Labor.

SENATOR WALBRON: No, Senator, we're not. If that is the case then the bill drafter made a mistake, not mine, because the one that I placed on the Clerk's desk was to be entered in the record was the absolute same one that I offered the other day only changing a couple of items is all.

SENATOR MURPHY: I would have to oppose his motion to return this bill. The consumer protection under LB3327 as it now exists is a much stronger act, it is not a 76 trombone flag-waving act. It is a good hard act with enforceable provisions. It carries misdemeanor penalties.....

(End of Belt #1)