

March 7, 1974

in getting the publication numbers restored, they were not interested in how good or bad the bill was, but how much money was in their pockets. They didn't care which one they supported as long as they got the publication fee. Now I know that most of you were wined and dined and I wasn't one of them by the National Bank of Commerce and Trust Company the last past week. I think that most of you were invited. This was a special interest thing because they are interested in it and I intend to develop this if the time permits and I am going to make a clear development of who is interested in this bill. I also know that (end belt #5)