time. It's in the Journal under $25? What is your pleasure?

SENATOR FELLMAN: Well, does this mean a new amendment has to be offered to raise it from $24.99 to $25.00?

PRESIDENT: That's correct, unfortunately, that's correct.

SENATOR FELLMAN: So moved.

PRESIDENT: The bill will have to advance and be brought back for that specific amendment under the rules of the Legislature. Withdraw your other amendment and we'll advance the bill and bring it back for this after you make motion to send....to set it at $25.

SENATOR FELLMAN: I shall withdraw my existing amendment. The....okay....I move the amendment....do I have to get unanimous consent to withdraw the motion?

PRESIDENT: Actually not, the motion is before the Body and it hasn't been voted on but I think you can get that.

SENATOR FELLMAN: I request the amendment be withdraw.

PRESIDENT: All right, are there objections to withdrawing the amendment? Hearing none, so ordered. I move the bill on and we'll bring it back.

SENATOR FELLMAN: I move the bill be advanced to E & R for Engrossing.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to advance LB614. All those in favor of advancement of the bill please say aye. Those opposed say no. Okay, the LB614 is advanced to E & R for Engrossing. Now, Senator Fellman, just a minute, stand by.

SENATOR FELLMAN: Mr. President, may the bill just stay where it is and be passed over?

PRESIDENT: Sure. All right, we'll leave LB614 on Final E & R for the moment. Now then, we come back, I believe.....
