

March 11, 1974

PRESIDENT: Well, yes, sir, go ahead.

SENATOR KELLY: I'm trying to get the legal bearles to make sure that those words say what everybody thinks they say. And if does, okay, and if it doesn't, they're going to have to be changed. Now, Speaker Proud, for what purpose do you rise?

SPEAKER PROUD: To find out what the last motion was. These are going by so fast that the one after the one he's talking about. I thought Senator Stahmer had something there.

CLERK: That was just to print some material in the Journal.

SENATOR PROUD: That's fine.

PRESIDENT: Some material in the Journal.

CLERK: Mr. President, unanimous consent to set LB783 for March 21. Signed, Senator Fowler.

PRESIDENT: LB783 for March 21? Are there objections to setting LB783 for March 21. All right hearing none, so ordered then. We'll set the bill for....
