floor be it myself or anyone else and throwing in something from left field where the whole Body does not have a chance to review it. And I again would suggest to you the Appropriations Committee has worked hard and I think this is one of the best bills that's ever come out on this floor.

PRESIDENT: Senator Waldron.

SENATOR WALDRON: Mr. President, I have a motion up there to recess until 1:30.

PRESIDENT: We had a motion ahead of that also. All right, we have a motion that...read the motion on the desk, please. We have some other things to read into the Journal here. Just a moment.

CLERK: Mr. President, your enrolling clerk respectfully reports that she has on this day at 11:45 a.m. presented to the Governor for his approval the following legislative bills, LB972, 984 and 772. Signed, Barbara Jackson, enrolling clerk. Senator Luedtke requests to be excused this afternoon until he returns.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? If not, so ordered.

CLERK: Unanimous consent to print amendments to LB963 in the Journal, signed, Senator Goodrich. Have a notice of executive session of the Labor Committee Friday, March 22, 12:30 p.m. Motion that we, legislative resolutions 128 and 129 be inserted in the Journal.

PRESIDENT: So ordered.

CLERK: Motion to recess until 2:00 p.m., signed, Senator Marsh.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh, the Chair recognizes Senator Marsh for a motion here.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President, I would like to remind the members of this Body that at 1:30 today we voted to accept the bust of William Jennings Bryan which will be dedicated in the Hall of Fame and I would encourage as many of you as possible to be present at 1:30.

PRESIDENT: Read another announcement, please.

CLERK: I wish to remind the Body that the documentary film, "Nebraska for the People" will be shown on ETV tomorrow evening, March 20, at 7:30 p.m., signed Senator Marsh.

PRESIDENT: All right, Senator Duis, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DUIS: Yes, Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask, the motion to recess is going to take precedent over a vote then on this rule change. In other words, we're going to wait until this afternoon? When I asked this of you gentlemen, I would appreciate it, I would like to confine the remarks on the rule change if we might, not to take up too much time in this Legislature because I for one would like to get back over on General File so we can get some work done. I thank you very much.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh, do you want to hold off on your motion to recess until we take the vote on Senator Duis'
