SENATOR CAVANAUGH: O.K. let's just vote on it then.

PRESIDENT: All right, is there any further discussion of the Stahmer amendment to the Rule change. Any further discussion. Senator Stahmer do you have any closing on your proposed amendment then.

SENATOR STAHMER: Well, Mr. President I'm somewhat reluctant to bring this up when the...I think the Exec Board that is not back yet to...I certainly wouldn't want them to think I was trying to push this through while they weren't here. And..if necessary perhaps we can have a Call of House if we are short and that will bring them back in. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: O.K. The Chair is in a difficult position here in that there 26 members that were registered in which constituted a quorum, and I'm reluctant to go ahead and vote on a Rule change or even a change to it. Senator Stahmer what is your....

SENATOR STAHMER: Would it be in order to ask for a Call of the House. I hate to disrupt the Board..the business, but I think this is important enough to ask for a Call of the House. I wouldn't want to try to..anyone ever to say I tried to slip one by when someone wasn't here. So I would ask for a Call of the House.

PRESIDENT: The Chair would concur in your sentiments. All right. Please indicate at the next whether you support a Call of the House or not on the vote on a Rules change. Motion is for a Call of the House. Motion is for a Call of the House. All right, Clerk will record.

CLERK: 21 ayes, 0 nays.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. We are under a Call of the House. At the next bell again I ask that the Chair would ask. Please indicate your presence, so we will know who to go get. We are now under a Call of the House. Congratulations. Please indicate your presence. We are asking you to indicate your presence for we are Under a Call of the House and then please take your seat. We are under a Call of the House and please indicate your presence. We are asking you to indicate your presence. We are under a Call of the House. Just as soon as we get the members in their seats we will have the Clerk read the amendment to the Rules changes which was proposed by Senator Stahmer. Senator Goodrich we are under a Call of the House, would you mind taking your seat. Thank you. After you take your seat, I wonder if the Chair could entreaty to you to please punch in so we will know who is here. Would you please register your presence. Could you please register your presence, thank you. Senator Stahmer, that looks that it could be about it. Standby.

SENATOR STAHMER: Mr. President, I think everyone is coming that is going to arrive. So I would like to have the motion repeated for the benefit for those who were not here.

PRESIDENT: Senator Savage, I hate to remind you we are under a Call of the House and you are to be in your seat, please. Thank you, Sir. Now if I may have your attention. I always think that I do not have your attention when I hear that much confusion on the floor. Senator Stahmer's proposed amendment
