situation going with the brownies and the cub scouts and the grade school class from Benkelman, etc. etc., and mothers.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: I think you have already heard it, Mr. President, I'm just calling for the question. We have discussed it long enough.

PRESIDENT: Once again, it has been proposed that the debate close. Does the chair see 5 hands. Thank you. The question is shall the debate now close. All those in favor will vote aye, all those opposed will vote no. Once again have you all voted? The Clerk will now record. And the results are. The debate will now close. Does the Chair presume correctly that SENator Duis will not close on the proposal change.

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President, and members of the Legislature. I assure the Senator Fellman that there is no intent here to disregard any of the organizations or people that he has in mind. What we try to do here is to keep an orderly fashion of discussion going on so that in the middle of debate, ~~that~~ someone is not introduced so that we lose the context of the debate. I do sincerely believe that those people who come down here to view us in session would like to see us at our work, not at introduction and we do think that the provision here that they will be entered into the journal and the journal can be forwarded to them, so that everyone will know that they have been present. And what we are trying to do here is to create an orderly fashion of discussion wo that when members of this Legislature and discussion and debate that there is not an interruption of thought.

PRESIDENT: The question is, do you want to adopt the rule change. If you do vote aye, if you do not vote no. 30 votes are required. The motion is to adopt the Rule change as found on page 876 of the Legislative Journal. Once again the Chair would inquire if you have all voted? All right, the Clerk will record. And the results are.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 22 nays and 13 not voting.

PRESIDENT: The proposed rule change is defeated. Do we have other Rule changes to take up. Senator Duis.

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President and members of the Legislature that is the Rule change for today. And with your kind permission we will try our best not to bring back to the Legislature this session any more of the Rule changes that you all bring to us. We do have another hearing or two because we have I don't know
