

think unfortunately that is logical so the amendment will probably loose.

PRESIDENT: Question is do you want to support Senator Frank Lewis amendment to 1053 on General File? All those in favor of the amendment will vote aye, those opposed vote no. You are voting on the Lewis amendment to 1053 on General File. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: 9 ayes, 18 nays and 22 not voting.

PRESIDENT: The motion is lost. Are there other amendments?

CLERK: Motion on the desk.

PRESIDENT: Read the motion on the desk.

CLERK: Read motion

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Stahmer.

SENATOR STAHMER: Mr. President, I tried to get the Chair's attention quicker, I would like to withdraw this now and consider it on Select File and that will give the budget committee a chance to check over the corrective english and see if we want to go this route or not.

PRESIDENT: There isn't any need for discussion. The amendment is withdrawn.

CLERK: Motion on the desk Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Read the motion.

CLERK: Read motion.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator F. Lewis.

SENATOR LEWIS: The motion simply says that any employee that is not performing satisfactorily shall cease employment.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion now? Senator NOre's light was on first then Senator Whitney.

SENATOR NORE: Mr. President, I think that we ought to start using some good common horse sense when we say not performing satisfactory we mean satisfactory to the point or degree of getting a raise. They are working but not....it doesn't merit a raise.

PRESIDENT: Senator Whitney.

SENATOR WHITNEY: Mr. President, members of the legislature, I'm going to have to oppose this. I don't know whether Senator Frank Lewis ever met a payroll or not, but I have a I have met them for forty years. Longer than that. Sometimes there is a person that is not satisfactorily you have to call him in and you say to him that you are not doing the right kind of a job but I want you to continue to work for me. I want you to grow, develop and mature. These are the things that you are going to have to do, the man does it and he becomes one of the finest employees that you have ever had and he may
