Attention please Final Reading of LB616. Clerk will read the bill.

CLERK: Read LB616

SENATOR STULL : Mr. President, members of the Legislature I would like to call your attention that one week from today on March 29th the observance of the anniversary the 100th anniversary of Ft. Robinson will be kicked-off and I had the Pages pass out a newspaper article and I would like for you to read it, but I want to call your attention to one week from today at sunrise, they will have a flag raising ceremony at the Crawford Highschool band will be out there to start the observance. Then in the evening at 8:00 the Platte Valley Oratorical Society will put on a conference, or concert. You will note in the article that there are events scheduled throughout the summer and of course the main observance will be the week of July 14-21. You will note through the last part of August and or the last part of July and the first or during August, they will have a good many horse shows at one time they had 15,000 horses and mules up there at the Fort. During this week of July 14 to the 21st, they have something going on each day and you will note that the Indian people will have a part in this observance. I would like to urge you people that sometime during the summer to plan to attend part of the observance and at this time the reservations are still available. Of course if you come out that way we want you to stop by Alliance and see the Stulls. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you Senator Stull, Senator Nore.

SENATOR NORE: I rise for a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: State your point Senator.

SENATOR NORE: I have on my desk here a little message from Senator Murphy, and I would like to have him know that every citizen in the state of Nebraska is one of my constituents. I would like to know my conatation on voting on General File, you are not Mickey Mousing around you are either voting against or for. I think that it is probably time that we understood that. How can we tell how a bill is going to bill, how the folks are voting, are they for or against it? Are they just Mickey Mousing around?

CLERK: Mr. President, a motion on the desk, to get on Final Reading.

PRESIDENT: On Final Reading?

CLERK: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Read the motion.

CLERK: Read motion.

PRESIDENT: Senator Stahmer we are ready for your motion on 922.

SENATOR STAHMER: Mr. President, members of the body, this is the bill that I bracketed about 2 weeks ago and I have this amendment worked out. I have spoke to Senator Luedtke about
