

PRESIDENT: You heard the motion to readvance the bill as amended. All those in favor of readvancing the bill say aye, those opposed say no. Bill is readvanced. Now Speaker Proud for what purpose do you rise?

SPEAKER PROUD: Point a personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: Go ahead sir.

SPEAKER PROUD: I would just like to ask unanimous consent to have printed in the Legislative Journal my written reply to an editorial yesterday by the World Herald, by excuse me the Lincoln Journal. I ask unanimous consent to have my reply printed in the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections?

CLERK: Where is the reply?

SPEAKER PROUD: I'll have it prepared.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Do you not want us to have it today so that you could make duplicate copies?

SPEAKER PROUD: I can assure you that I will make duplicate copies. You can rely on that.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections?

SPEAKER PROUD: In that connection...

PRESIDENT: Hearing none, so ordered.

SPEAKER PROUD: IN that connection, I will get to this later I will fully answer the writer in the Editorial writer for the Lincoln Journal who of course is faceless and nameless nobody knows who these people are, and they don't have guts enough to debate you and he speaks from complete ignorance and of course...he or she....of course I don't know what sex it is, I have gotten accustomed to this ignorance but the editorial contains an absolute lie, and I'll reply to that later on when I have some new for these people that they are not going to like.

PRESIDENT: Do we have any...Senator Marsh, for what purpose do you rise? There is nothing before the house.

SENATOR MARSH: On a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: State your point Senator.

SENATOR MARSH: I am currently having a delivered around
