he things is...this is going to be popular in, and to oppose child care and you people are willing to follow him to the slaughter house. Go ahead.

PRESIDENT: Senator Kelly. Wait a minute, Senator Kelly.

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. President, and members of the body. As I read the amendment to the amendment, it's such fund would be referring to the million dollars and to day care center dependent children business. I don't see the other dangers in there. I would support the DeCamp amendment to the amendment. Anything just so that the state doesn't take this over and run and..run it as a state bureasucracy. And that we can have child care centers that the State Welfare Department can supervise. They will find it very difficult to supervise the very centers that they themselves are operating. Let them be the supervisors and let the centers operate.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Senator Syas brought up a question that I think you ought to rule whether DeCamp's amendment is in order or out of order. And whatever you rule we ought to stand back and you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Sir. I've ruled that the amendment is in order and I've accepted it, and that's the issue before the body. Senator DeCamp. Stand by wait a minute. SENator Lewis Frank Lewis, did you want to be heard on the issue. Previous question, you are moving the previous question? All right. The previous question has been ruled. The Chair sees five hands. Thank you. The question is, shall the debate now close? The motion is to close debate on the issue. This si the DeCamp amendment to the Cavanaugh amendment to 1054. The motion is to close debate. Are you all through voting? Thank you, the Clerk will record. I want you to know that my horoscope for the day said it would be a difficult day.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 6 nays.

PRESIDENT: Debate will now close. Senator DeCamp you may close on your motion. Senato Decamp is now closing.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, and members of the Legislature. Let's look at what Senator Cavanaugh said, he said Senator DeCamp really doesn't believe in this and he screams communism and his only interest is what his voters up in his district think. Now let's assume, that he's 100% right, which he is not. But let's assume he is. All you have to do is look at what you really believe on a particular issue. Which is this issue. Listen to the facts on both sides, and irrespective of my motives, vote that way. I could be duping you in my feelings completely. I'm not, but I could be. That isn't the guiding criteria here. Senator Cavanaugh and this body in the last two years seems to think that when you don't have arguments for an issue you attack the individual. Well, I haven't said anything to them about, it up to this time, but I'm getting a little weary of it. Whether it's calling Senator Syas a liar or whatever. I think it's time we cease this kind of activity and discuss the issue. O.K..the issue is. What does the amendment do, and what does it change
