

to meet sixty days. We could meet Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The effect of all of this is, that there will be no further consideration to bills on General File. I think that is the jest of it. Now whoever wants to speak. As Senator Carpenter mentioned, I hope that we will not spend all morning on this.

CLERK: Senator Stahmer asked to have this reread. What it would simply do is to adjourn from Today until next Monday and then meet Monday through Thursday of next week. That is all.

SPEAKER: Not through Thursday, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Well, Thursday would be the sixtieth day if you would want it. If you needed it good if not, quit.

SPEAKER: Yes, now Mr. Burnett is here and can answer any questions that you may have. I will recognize Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, members of the legislature, I don't know if I want to ask a question first, or what. Emory if you want to stand by. Can you tell me what would happen if we went to General File today and took what we thought might be important to the state. I have two ideas in mind. Definitely for Lincoln, and I'm sure that there are two or three up there that I would be willing to pass. I think that we could take care of them later on. I am thinking basically of the fair grounds for an issue and I'm thinking of our centrum building for another issue in Lincoln. Now if we took these issues and I'm sure that somebody else might have two or three, is that going to hold us up if we take them off General File today only?

MR. BURNETT: Mr....Senator it is a difficult thing for me to say, standing here in the position that I occupy. I know that there are probably 20-30 bills such as you are talking about, we have been having quite a go around downstairs trying to find bills to amend and bring things in to some of those under scored bills. I know that quite a number of members would like that. If only one said that we could move one or two simple bills, the answer would be one thing. But if I say that you can move bills and I can guarantee that I can get them done, then I'm afraid that I am opening up a far bigger job for myself that I could possibly perform by Monday.

SENATOR BARNETT: We would have to have these done by Monday so that we could continue them across the board in time for Final Reading, is that what you are saying?

MR. BURNETT: With the schedule that Senator Carpenter mentioned, if you are to meet Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week and adjourn sine die on Wednesday, that is true.

SENATOR BARNETT: Yeah, that...if we took the...

MR. BURNETT: Even before getting to General File, and I may be a little brash in making this comment Senator, I think that there is a tremendous amount of work yet to be done on Select File.

SENATOR BARNETT: I am thinking right now that I as one I could
