in his role and I'd stand by that. I think that all of us have those same kind of problems both in and out of this Body and in and out of practice everywhere. You can draw a possible conflict from anything you want to and I can name you a dozen right now.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lewis, are you all through?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I'm through with Senator Cavanaugh's questioning me on my turn on the floor and I appreciate those questions.

PRESIDENT: You had the Chair confused there for a while as a matter of fact as to who had the floor. Now, Senator Frank Lewis, are you through?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I just have a couple of other comments I'm going to make again....
