PRESIDENT: Well, alright Senator Clark.

SENATOR CLARK: Mr. President, members of the body, I would like to have Senator Carpenter come up here for a moment please. I don't see why you are any different than Senator Cavanaugh, I think that you ought to kneel right there. It is my privilege because I am the only Senator that has a district that completely surrounds Senator Carpenter. I am the only one that has been able to hold him in toe all of this time. It is my privilege to present him this plaque from the legislature. Now there were about 100 inscriptions that they were going to put on here, and it finally boiled down to this "Terry Carpenter, he defied description". We would like to....(applause) I have one other motion that I would like to make personally.

PRESIDENT: Alright.

SENATOR CLARK: I move that the Journal for the Sixtieth Day, as prepared by the Clerk, be approved, and that the Eighty-third Legislature, Second Session of the Legislature, having finished all business before it, now at 5:56 we adjourn sine die.

PRESIDENT: You heard the motion, is there support? Any further business to come before the body? Question is do you support themotion to adjourn? If you do say aye, opposed say no. We are adjourned sine die.
