

January 3, 1979

o'clock tomorrow. Mr. Clerk, what is this about bills prefile with the Clerk's Office?

CLERK: Just to encourage the legislators to file the bills with me so we have some for tomorrow's reading.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, then you also have on your desks information concerning the activities tomorrow. Each of you who desired has been assigned a job to do and we thought we ought to get this out ahead of time so you will know what your participation is, and if you don't have one of those agendas for the activities starting at two o'clock tomorrow, please check with the Clerk. Is there any other information I should...no, we will adjourn until ten o'clock tomorrow morning with your approval at which time I hope you will begin to process the bills that you would like to see moved across the Board, through the Committee structure and across the Board. So, Mr. President, if there is no other business, I move that we adjourn until ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. We are adjourned until ten tomorrow morning.

Edited by:

Marilyn Lank
Marilyn Lank