LB 551, 288

SENATOR KEYES: How many assessors and assistant assessors can a county have?

SENATOR CARSTEN: I am sure there are not very many. There are only a few of the county assessors that have been able to take this training and spend the time in this area to even qualify as in my opinion is an advanced school for county assessors, Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: Oh, it isn't the one that you have to pass to serve in the office?

SENATOR CARSTEN: No. No, that is not true. It only rewards those who go beyond that for added knowledge and expertise in the field of assessment.

SENATOR KEYES: Okay, I hope.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is the advancement of LB 551 to E & R for review. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is carried. The bill is advanced. The next bill is LB 288, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 288. Title read. The bill was first read on January 16. It was referred to the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee. It was advanced to General File. There are no committee amendments. However, Senator DeCamp has an amendment pending.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Do you want to read the amendment?

CLERK: The amendment, Mr. President, reads as follows: Read De Camp amendment found on page 994, Legislative Journal.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Chair recognizes Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, all the amendment does is clarify the bill so that the "hold harmless" applies only to the specific covenant promise agreement or combination thereof, so that it doesn't apply to the entire contract and
