

March 21, 1979

LB 164

there but it takes some honesty and integrity in the matter and it is not going to be used. So we are going to have to do this I guess. What is going to happen? We are going to pass it and then the next bulge occurs. The next bulge is going to be over in, and I will give you this prediction now and you check me out next January, February, the next bulge is going to be over in Council Bluffs. That is right. You contain it here. You make it so tight that the next one shows up over there. So I am going to support the bill. I am going to support the Johnson amendments, go all the way, but let's quit pretending that the bad guys are just the guys running the hall. The bad guys had to have the coconspirator there, the people that saw easy money and just decided to do it that way instead of the straight way.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Fitzgerald.

SENATOR FITZGERALD: I want to speak on the bill, sir, not on the amendment.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, I will hold your name until then. Senator Keyes, do you wish to speak to the Newell amendment? We are on the Newell amendment to eliminate the emergency clause. Do you wish to speak to that?

SENATOR KEYES: No, I want to speak to the bill.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Koch, do you wish to speak? We are on the Newell amendment. Senator Labeledz, do you want to speak to the Newell amendment?

SENATOR LABEDZ: Yes, Mr. Speaker. I call for the question.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The question has been called for. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor, excuse me, do I see five seconds first? All those in favor of ceasing debate vote aye, opposed vote no. Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the motion is carried. Debate has ceased and the Chair recognizes Senator Newell on his amendment.

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, members of the body, when Senator Venditte got up to speak about not being part of the compromise, I have to admit Senator Venditte was not there at that executive session, as is sometimes the case, and so Senator Venditte's arguments were correct. He was