to have a Call of the House.

PRESIDENT: Clear the board and the motion before the House is shall the House go under Call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record the vote.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 0 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The House is under Call. The Sergeant at Arms will secure the Chamber. All members will return to their desks. All nonlegislative personnel will leave the floor. The House is under Call. All members of the Legislature will register their presence. While the members of the Legislature are registering their presence, the Chair would like to introduce from Senator Maresh's District 29 tenth grade students from the Friend High School and teachers in the South balcony. Would the Friend High School visitors stand up and be recognized? Welcome to your Legislature. We will accept call in votes at this time.

CLERK: Senator Keyes had voted aye. Senator Pirsch still voting aye. Senator Lamb votes aye.

PRESIDENT: On those that have registered their presence, Senator Carsten, will you show your presence? Senator Kelly. Senator Vickers, will you show your presence? Senator Keyes, I know you are there. Senator Koch.

CLERK: Senator Wesely voting no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Nichol, the Miscellaneous Committee I believe is out. Do you want them brought back and have a roll call vote or what do you want to do?

SENATOR NICHOL: I believe that is what we better do with only three excused we are still eleven short in the Chamber and we just as well get them in.

PRESIDENT: That is right, we only have three excused. We'll wait the committee's return and then we will have a roll call vote. Explaining to the visitors, the House is what we call under Call where the members have called themselves back to the Chamber, must be at their desks according to their own rules. We're awaiting the return of a committee which has been excused temporarily for a meeting. We are now voting on the advancement of LB 14, a bill on dry bean checkoff and the final vote on advancing it will take place when all of them return. Senator Pirsch, I don't believe your light is on. Thank you. Members of the Miscellaneous
