That legislation was enacted but there was a flaw in the language of the "A" bill and could not be utilized. Then there is a... some amendments, a number of amendments contained in the bill reflecting the change in personal services for various agencies because of "A" bills that were passed during the course of the last session. The general...quickly, the things generally that are included in the bill is the transfer of salaries from one program to another program within the Supreme Court, recognizing that there were some... when they were...the retirement of a couple of judges, they had to bring in some...or did bring in some retired, I believe, District Court Judges that assisted that did not result in any increase in appropriation. There is approximately seven thousand dollars to pick up the additional cost than was expected because of one additional probation officer as a result of LB 624 last session. There are some minor adjustments in the Secretary of State's office dealing with their cash funds, plus a six thousand dollar appropriation for the printing of the special session Journals, and also some additional cost that occurred during the election...preparation of the election ballots of last November. There's a series of amounts of reimbursement, the Department of Education, which we normally have the wards of the court of two hundred forty-eight thousand, special education transportation for '77-'78 of a million nineteen thousand, special education that LB 403 of some years ago of a million two hundred twenty-four thousand, and then a separate amount of two hundred and twenty-one thousand, which is all federal funds for the same purpose. There is some adjustments for some revolving funds, which have no impact as far as total appropriation is concerned, and then there's a hundred and eighty-four thousand of general fund that again recognizes the passage of LB 871 of the last session, and this is one which merely changed the process in which the students at the School for the Visually Handicapped...the process by which the state money came to that institution. There's a slight adjustment in the Public Service Commission, which is strictly an adjustment of funds from one program to another, a couple hundred thousand added for Homestead Exemption to the Department of Revenue, a slight adjustment required because of the costs of related one-time costs for the termination of the prior Tax Commissioner at the end of this year. There is a sizeable one hundred and sixty thousand dollar amount of general fund, sixty-five thousand of it for postage, the rest data processing costs over and above what the agency anticipated. There's a hundred and forty thousand cash fund for the Department of Aeronautics for the purchase, or
