all of the expenditures by the University or the state colleges as the manner in which they use the funds is available, is a matter of public information. So when I indicated earlier that we had no control, we certainly have a very tight control in terms of oversight as to how the funds are expended.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Cullan, do you wish to speak on the Newell amendment?

SENATOR CULLAN: Mr. President, I call the question.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The question has been called for. Do I see five hands? Yes. Shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. The question is, shall debate cease? Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to cease debate.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All right. Debate is ceased. Senator Newell, do you wish to close?

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, members of the body, I am a bit hurt or maybe the word is stung by Senator Koch's remarks and I am going to respond to them before I make a general closing on the rest of the amendments. Senator Koch, I would remind you....

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Newell, when you respond, please keep to the point.

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, the point is that I am neither inconsistent.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The point has to do with your amendment. That is what we are discussing.

SENATOR NEWELL: That is correct.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Amendment #2.

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, I can do that. I can do that in a long way or I can do that in a short way. I am talking about $123,000 which I would like to have exempted. I am also talking about how this is very consistent with my political philosophy. It is consistent in this way. It is consistent because I, Senator Koch, unlike some members of this body, and maybe even yourself if
