

April 12, 1979

Reading, when you come back on Tuesday, you can expect that we would start with 65, 506, 506A, 564. We'll probably take up the 9th of April on Tuesday, and then on Wednesday we'll take the 10th of April, and we'll try to double up and catch up with all those on Final Reading within the next few days after we get back. So I want to alert you to that so you can begin, just follow the sheet on your worksheet on down the line, starting with 65. I want to personally thank all of you who got here today and helped at least get some bills off the consent calendar. We're going to be in for a very tight session from now on, and I do appreciate your diligence. With that, Senator Johnson, would you like to adjourn us until Tuesday, April 17th at 9:30?

SENATOR JOHNSON: Mr. Speaker, I move we adjourn until Tuesday, whatever the date is...

SPEAKER MARVEL: April 17th.

SENATOR JOHNSON: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, April 17th until 9:30.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is adjournment until Tuesday, April 17, 1979 at 9:30. All those in favor say aye. Opposed no. The motion carried. Have a good relaxing vacation, and we'll see you next Tuesday. We are adjourned.
