with the question is, shall the bill pass? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. With emergency clause attached. Have you all voted? Clerk, record the vote. The Legislature will be at ease for a couple of minutes while we get the machine fixed.

EASE

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Legislature will come to order.

CLERK: (Record vote may be found on Pages 1490 and 1491 of the Legislative Journal.) 44 ayes, 0 nays, 1 excused and not voting, and 4 present and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The bill is declared passed with emergency clause attached. We will move off of Final Reading for a few moments, and recognize the Sergeant at Arms for a special short program. Mr. Sergeant at Arms.

SERGEANT AT ARMS: Mr. President, we are greeted with much love at the Legislature this morning. We are privileged to have with us the Nebraska Mother of the Year and the Young Mother of the Year. The Mother of the Year is being escorted by our own Senator William Hasebroock and the Young Mother will be escorted by our own Senator William Nichol.

SENATOR HASEBROOCK: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen, it is my privilege to present a lady who is possessed of many talents. She lives in the 18th District in the community of Wisner, sometimes known as the Irish capitol of Nebraska. She and her husband, Patrick McGill are the parents of 11 children and 47 grandchildren. She is active in civic and church affairs in her community. Her family has been blessed with many musical talents and have provided entertainment for many affairs both locally and over the state. It has been my great honor to present a long time friend, a dedicated talented homemaker and mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bly McGill, Nebraska's 1979 Mother of the Year.

MRS. ELIZABETH MCGILL: Speaker Marvel, distinguished members of the Legislature, I am indeed happy to be here. I am not even uncomfortable. I'm so happy to be beside Senator Hasebroock who has been our longtime friend. It makes it very easy. We are privileged in this state to
