LB 428

have so many good lawmakers in our Nebraska Legislature, and in this world of ours everything may be serious, but not really hopeless, but in our family we sometimes think it is hopeless but not serious. We thank you very much for this nice honor.

SENATOR NICHOL: Fellow colleagues, ladies and gentlemen, it is my honor this morning to introduce Mrs. Dianne Matson of Mitchell, Nebraska, and her husband Stan is here also. They have two small daughters and Mrs. Matson operates a day school center. I think we usually are grasping at claims to fame and I think if I have a claim to fame it might be that three out of the past four years the Young Mother of the Year has come from my district, and the fourth year it came from barely out of my district and I hate to admit this but it was in Senator Clark's district from Bayard, Nebraska. So it is with pleasure this morning that I introduce Mrs. Dianne Mathson of Mitchell, Nebraska.

MRS. DIANNE MATHSON: Senators and Speaker, I am very honored to be here in this beautiful and symbolic hall. Your job as Senators is very important to the future of our state. Mothering is also an important job, for a state can only be as strong as its family life. We have a beautiful state to live in and I plan to do my part to keep it that way by teaching my children to protect and enjoy its beauty. Nebraska has a full rich history and I'm always proud to say I'm a Mother and a Nebraskan. Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Ladies and gentlemen, you've honored us with your presence today. Will the two Senators please escort the ladies and their husbands from the room. Now if the Legislature will come to order, we will revert back to the final bills on Final Reading for the morning. Before we start Final Reading, in the north balcony from Senator Duis' district are the ten senior students from Loomis High School. There you are. Okay, we welcome you to the Legislature this morning. Dan Atchison is the teacher. Will the Legislature please come to order? We have four more bills on Final Reading. The first bill on Final Reading is LB 428, but we'd better wait just a moment. Okay, the Clerk will read on Final Reading LB 428.

CLERK: (Read on Final LB 428.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: All provisions of law having been complied
