LB 227

the purpose of the amendment. That is all it does and I would move the bill be returned for that specific amendment, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Reutzel.

SENATOR REUTZEL: Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Yes.

SENATOR REUTZEL: It appears to me that maybe you are getting with a credit and getting into that kind of situation that you might be getting to the point where it is going to be more paperwork than on a refund system. They are going to have to keep track of this for a year rather than just apply for a refund and make out a warrant. You are going to have to keep track of this for a year and keep books on this and reapply this for the following year. It appears that maybe that is getting a little far-fetched.

SENATOR WARNER: I guess the issue I was thinking of in terms it would be less book work in terms of government is concerned. For the individual, it is true they would have to keep their refund slip, that identification, not refund, their credit slip when they were to reapply and it might be a little more something for the individual to keep track of, but on the other hand if they are given some relief, I imagine that's a responsibility they ought to be willing to accept.

SENATOR REUTZEL: So they may not really be getting anything under...

SENATOR WARNER: Pardon.

SENATOR REUTZEL: They may be getting a little relief on one hand but more book work on the other which they may not be gaining a whole lot in.....

SENATOR WARNER: I don't think the individual is getting more book work, Senator Reutzel. It is just a matter of the keeping in their possession the credit slip when they reapply for the license for the balance of the year or at the time they reapplied or transferred it to another vehicle.

SENATOR REUTZEL: Well, a dangerous precedent, Senator Warner.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion on the Warner amendment, the motion to return on LB 227? The Chair recognizes Senator Kahle.
