

April 18, 1979

LB 172

SENATOR SCHMIT: Go ahead.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Cullan and Senator Goodrich, you have a sheet here that's got forty-six amendments and I assume that these are the committee amendments, is that correct?

SENATOR CULLAN: These are the committee amendments, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKERMARVEL: What the Chair is trying to do is not to dictate but try to understand for his benefit and also perhaps for the benefit of others, and if we are going to argue about forty-six separate amendments and then pretty soon twenty-five separate amendments, we are going to get lost in a lot of detail. So help the Chair out at the moment and tell me what you propose to do. Do you propose to go through the majority of the forty-six first? You have a sheet here that represents the committee amendments as forty-six subdivisions, is that correct?

SENATOR CULLAN: Mr. President, the committee amendments are in the bill book. I have broken them out in forty-six separate amendments and explanations so that you can see what constitute the committee amendments. I would be happy to deal with the committee amendments as one. With respect to Senator Schmit's amendments, and I have not seen them, I suppose that they are the amendments that were marked "Wesely" and distributed this morning. With respect to those amendments, I would ask for a division of the question.

SPEAKER MARVEL: All right. Now this time is not being charged to anybody at the moment. Senator Schmit, what is your motion now?

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President, it is my understanding that Senator Cullan had completed his explanation of the committee amendments and I had offered an amendment to the committee amendments which is the one referred to as (interruption).

SPEAKER MARVEL: You aren't offering an amendment to any specific committee amendment?

SENATOR SCHMIT: I am offering to amend the committee amendments, an amendment to the committee amendments.

SENATOR CULLAN: Mr. President, I am not sure, Senator Schmit, could you clarify that? Are those the amendments that were distributed this morning?