

April 20, 1979

LB 14, 185

SPEAKER MARVEL PRESIDING

SPEAKER MARVEL: We are going to try to work from the consent calendar date of April 20, 1979. If you don't have a copy of that maybe you could send a Page to the Clerk's office. Has everyone recorded their presence? I think that we have a quorum here if we can get the indication on the board and then we can start. I repeat once again that we are going to go to the consent calendar on the date of April 20, 1979. If you don't have a copy of that if you would send a Page to the Clerk's office. Okay, record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Quorum present, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Do you have anything to read into the record?

CLERK: One item Mr. President. I have an Attorney General's opinion addressed to Senator Burrows regarding LB 14. That will be inserted in the Legislative Journal. (See pages 1590-1591).

SPEAKER MARVEL: It is my pleasure first of all to introduce in the south balcony Dave Nienkamp is the teacher from Senator Kremer's district, 38 seventh grade students, two teachers and two parents from Sandy Creek Public School, Fairfield, Nebraska. This is the school where my sister-in-law works for the superintendent, Mrs. Dale Ridgeway. Would you raise your hands so that we can see where you are. We welcome you. Now we will start with the top of the consent calendar and move down the list. We will start with Roman Numeral one. For those in the balconies what the consent calendar is, is a list of bills which have been voted out of the committees, have now been acted upon and each one of these bills will receive up to 15 minutes discussion before we go to the next bill. First bill, Senator Hoagland, LB 490 you wish to hold, right? Okay. Senator Newell what about the next one LB 185? Are you ready to take that one up? You need a consent calendar why don't you....

CLERK: Senator, the title is to make it unlawful to use false or misleading advertisements. I have amendments by yourself pending.

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, do you want to do the amendments?

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 185 was introduced by the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee and signed by the
