LB 495

of the members are here?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Might as well Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Koch, Senator Maresh, just looking at those that are here that haven't registered. Senator Maresh. Senator Marvel, Senator Schmit, Nichol are they here? Senator Hefner, Schmit, Nichol, Senator Goodrich, Senator Fitzgerald. Okay, we are all...all right Senator Haberman, are you ready for roll call vote? All right, proceed with roll call, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Roll call vote. 24 ayes, 12 nays, Mr. President, on on the motion to adopt the amendment. Vote appears on page 1646 of the Legislative Journal.

PRESIDENT: Motion fails. Amendment is not adopted. Yes, we had better readvance the bill. Motion. Senator Marsh moves that we advance 495. All those in favor signify by saying aye, opposed nay. All right, record vote has been requested. All those in favor of readvancing 495 vote aye, opposed nay. Go to the board. A record vote has been requested. I would remind everyone that the House is still under Call. Motion is to readvance LB 495 back to E & R for Engrossment. Senator Newell, what do you wish to do? Record the vote.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 18 nays Mr. President on the motion to readvance.

PRESIDENT: Motion fails. It just stays on Select. Speaker Marvel, now do you want to go ahead to 174A at this time?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Could I make a couple of comments generally?

PRESIDENT: Yes. The Chair recognizes Speaker Marvel.

SPEAKER MARVEL: We had a meeting of the chairmen this morning and if we are going to process any more bills off of General File we are going to have to run a tight ship or it just isn't going to get done. Now, we have about four or five key issues, I call to your attention today, and I would propose that we cover these issues before we adjourn tonight. Even if it takes up to 6:00. The special order, 221 is one issue and there are some that feel that most people in this room have already made up their minds, it is a matter of voting. The two other controversial items or that will take some discussion are down on the bottom of Select File, 285 which is the 11d bill and 365 which is the Omaha sales tax bill and
