LB 221

SENATOR DWORAK: Pat, I would like a record vote, please.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Well, Senator Hoagland asked for a Call of the House. Do you want to withdraw that? Okay. A record vote is requested. The Clerk will read.

CLERK: (Read record vote found on page 1651 of the Legislative Journal.) 17 ayes, 25 nays, 5 excused and not voting and 2 present and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion lost. The amendment is not adopted. What is the next amendment?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Newell now moves to amend the bill. On page 8, line 25, after the word "act" add, "or who is self-supporting, not living with his or her parents and not a dependent of his or her parents as provided in the Internal Revenue code of the United States of America."

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Chair recognizes Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President and members of the body, I offered this amendment and another amendment earlier when I felt a little disappointed about the unwillingness of my colleagues to debate and discuss this issue and I appreciate that there has been a little more debate and discussion since that time and for that reason I am not going to ask that we prolong the debate on this amendment. So for that reason I would like to withdraw that amendment if I could.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Unanimous consent is requested to withdraw the amendment. Hearing no objection, so ordered.

Do you have another amendment, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Newell moves to amend. On page 8, line 25, after "act" add, "or who is in the company of his or her parent or parents."

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, members of the body, it is another amendment that I offered when I was a bit angry at the unwillingness to discuss. I would like to explain this just for a moment since I did try to refrain from speaking on two other things and then I will ask that it be withdrawn also. I would like to speak to this ever so briefly by saying in the early part of the nineteen hundreds this country embarked on what was then called
