SENATOR DUIS: The new A bill then will show about $120,000?

SENATOR REUTZEL: About $120,000, $95,000 of that is a one time expense.

SENATOR DUIS: Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Haberman and Senator Newell. This bill has until three thirty and then its time has run out. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Reutzel, will you yield to two or three questions?

SENATOR REUTZEL: Sure.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Have you solved the problem of the building where to put this?

SENATOR REUTZEL: Yes, we have.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Have you solved the problem of the equipment that it is going to take?

SENATOR REUTZEL: Yes, we have.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Have you had verification from the people at the penitentiary that they are willing to take this on and conduct it?

SENATOR REUTZEL: We have spent time out there, several meetings, both staff and myself out there with the Warden and we are getting that in writing, in the process of getting that in writing right now, but we have spent....

SENATOR HABERMAN: But have they agreed to give it all of the time and thought and....

SENATOR REUTZEL: Verbally, yes.

SENATOR HABERMAN: And do you hold to the yellow sheet here that says they are only going to hire nine new additional employees?

SENATOR REUTZEL: Which figure is that, Senator?

SENATOR HABERMAN: On the fiscal note here, it is talking about you are going to hire nine new initial employees to
